

Gemological Microscope GM-1200

$3,500.00

Gemological Microscope GM-1000 Series	Gemological Microscope GM-1200 Series	Microscopes
---------------------------------------	---------------------------------------	-------------

Gemological Microscope GM-1200 used to examine diamonds, emeralds, rubies and all other types of precious stones. Available in binocular and trinocular form for the capture of the gem provides you with an opportunity for extra revenue. Designed with 3 different types of illumination making it a very flexible stereomicroscope including Fluorescent lamp, LED, and Halogen illumination. These microscopes ensure good status for having outstanding optics, rugged dependability, flexibility and low-cost to perform identifications, analyses, and measurements more accurately and efficiently, thus reducing your workload. At a working distance of 115 mm with a 1:6.3 zooms ratio. Ideal for working with subtle jewelry, gemstones and used in the design, creation, production, and repair of jewelry under high magnification 0.8X-5X to provide quality image.

Add To Cart

Product Description

Gemological Microscope GM-1200 used to examine diamonds, emeralds, rubies and all other types of precious stones. Available in binocular and trinocular form for the capture of the gem provides you with an opportunity for extra revenue. Designed with 3 different types of illumination making it a very flexible stereomicroscope including Fluorescent lamp, LED, and Halogen illumination. These microscopes ensure good status for having outstanding optics, rugged dependability, flexibility and low-cost to perform identifications, analyses, and measurements more accurately and efficiently, thus reducing your workload. At a working distance of 115 mm with a 1:6.3 zooms ratio. Ideal for working with subtle jewelry, gemstones and used in the design, creation, production, and repair of jewelry under high magnification 0.8X-5X to provide quality image.

Similar Products

Buy Now

Buy Now

Buy Now

Buy Now